

Tuition Reduction Offer

for employees of

Baldwin County Commission/
Sheriff's Office

Presented by

Faulkner University

Faulkner University is pleased to extend this tuition reduction offer to full-time employees of Baldwin County Commission/Sheriff's Office. This offer is governed by the following guidelines:

1. Tuition will be reduced by 50% in all applicable programs (see exclusions).
2. All admission requirements must be satisfied and satisfactory academic progress maintained.
3. Employees must remain continuously enrolled, including summers, until completion of the degree.
4. This offer cannot be combined with any other institutional discount, award, grant or scholarship.
5. Faulkner reserves the right to limit enrollment in individual programs, should it become necessary.
6. All applicable fees are the student's responsibility.
7. Students must provide a letter from their employer on letterhead signed by an official or supervisor verifying full-time employment prior to initial enrollment and again prior to each subsequent fall semester (August).
8. This offer is valid until further notice. If Faulkner wishes to adjust or discontinue this offer, notice will be provided via email. If this were to occur, Faulkner will honor the offer for those enrolled at the time of notice as long as the student remains in compliance with all stated requirements.

Exclusions

This offer does not apply to Faulkner Law (Jones School of Law) or anyone entering as a traditional student on the Montgomery campus. Faulkner reserves the right to make additional exclusions, if necessary.

Offer extended October 19, 2016 by:

Mark Hunt

Associate Vice President

Executive & Professional Enrollment